Steve Nash Program Officials

- Mission

- Part of the Steve Nash Youth Basketball mission is to train new officials and to educate children, Coaches and Parents/Guardians on basic rules of the game.
- Steve Nash Youth Basketball strives to put Officials into an educating role, rather than a policing role, working cooperatively with Coaches to teach the game and to teach skills.

FIBA Rule Changes

- Start of 8-second count.
- Advancing the ball in the last 2 minutes.
- Status of the ball in the front court.
- Unsportsmanlike foul during a throw-in.

8-SECOND RULE

- Count starts as soon as any player touches or is touched by the ball in the backcourt.

8-SECOND RULE

- A1's throw-in pass from team A's backcourt is touched but not controlled by A2 and the ball bounces freely on the floor. Shall the official start an 8-second count immediately?
- Answer: Yes.

8-SECOND RULE

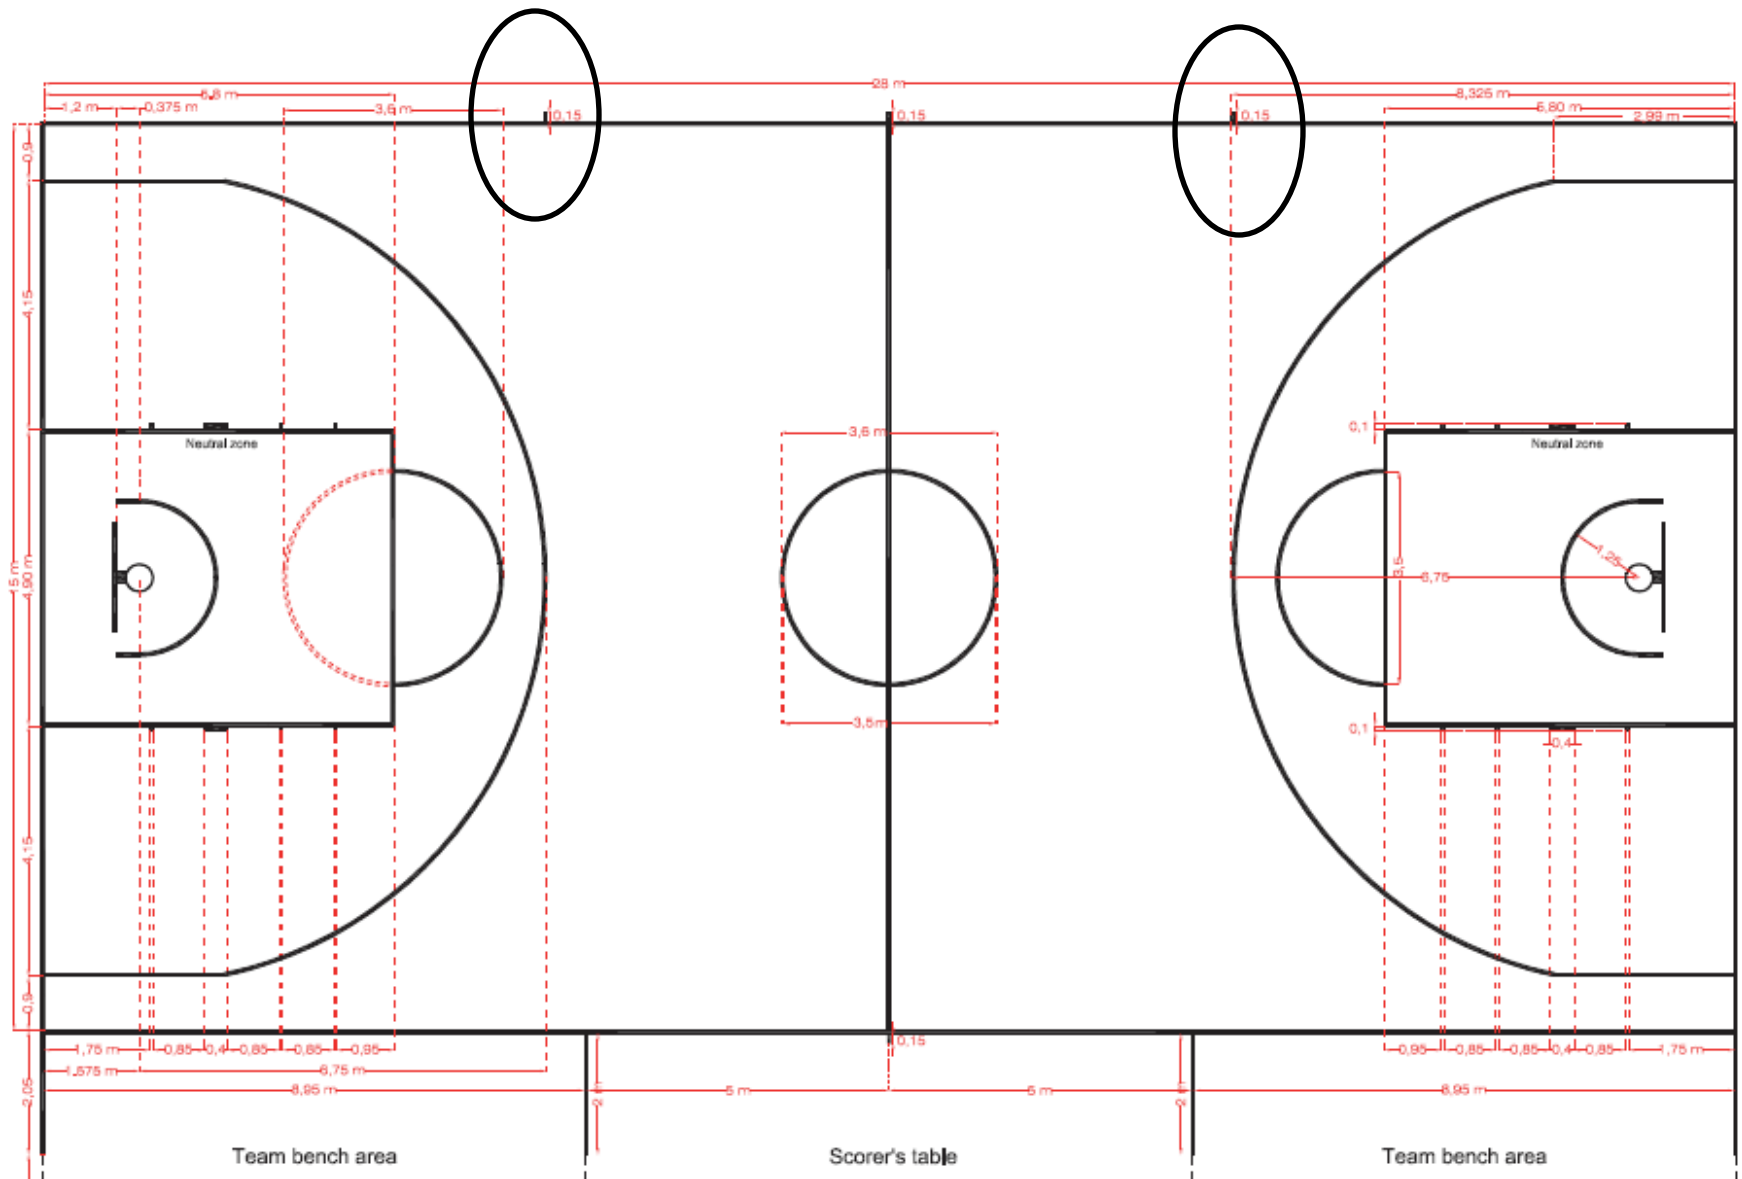

- A1's throw-in pass from Team A's backcourt is deflected by B1 and the ball bounces freely on the floor. Shall the official start an 8-second count immediately?
- Answer: Yes.

Last 2 Minutes of 4th Q

- Team Entitled to throw-in in backcourt takes a time-out, throw-in is now advanced to the front court.
 - Hash mark
 - Top of 3 point line, opposite to table.

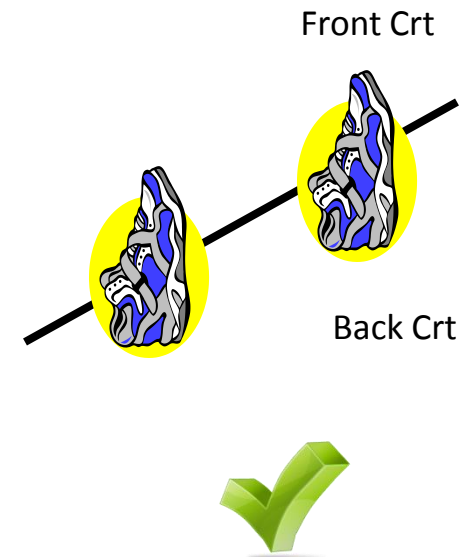

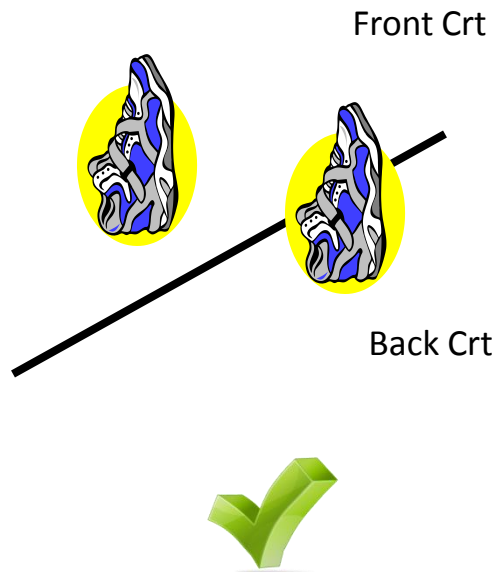

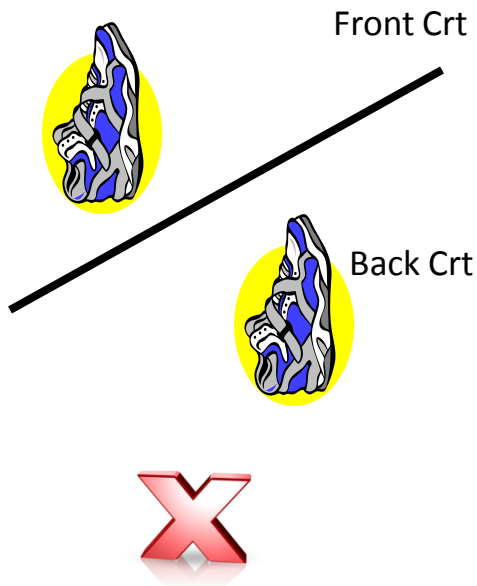

Last 2 Minutes

- With 1:45 left to play in the 4th quarter, B1 commits a foul on A1 who is dribbling the ball in Team A's backcourt. This is Team B's 7th foul in the half. Team A requests and is granted a time-out. After the time-out, shall the Team A throw-in be taken at mid-court, straddling the line?
 - Answer: No

Ball in the Front Court

- The ball touches or is legally touched by an offensive player who has both feet in contact with his front court

Ball in the Front Court

- A1 who is straddling the mid-court line receives a pass from A2 from Team A's backcourt. A1 passes the ball back to A2 who is still in Team A's backcourt. Is this legal?
 - Yes
- A1 who is straddling the mid-court line receives a pass from A2 from Team A's backcourt. A1 pivots in Team A's backcourt. Is this a violation?
 - No

Ball in the Front Court

- A1 who is straddling the mid-court line receives a pass from A2 from Team A's backcourt. A1, while still straddling the line dribbles the ball. Is this legal?
 - Yes
- A1 who is straddling the mid-court line receives a pass from A2 from Team A's backcourt. A1 then passes to A3 who is also straddling the mid-court line. Is this legal?
 - Yes

Ball in the Front Court

- A1 who is straddling the mid-court line receives a pass from A2 from Team A's backcourt. A1 then passes to A3 who jumps from Team A's front court, catches A1's pass while airborne and lands straddling the mid-court line. Is this a violation?
 - Yes

Unsportsmanlike Foul

- During the last 2 minutes of the 4th quarter, and during the last 2 minutes of each extra period, the ball is out-of-bounds for a throw-in and still in the hands of the official or already at the disposal of the player taking the throw-in. If at this moment a defensive player on the playing court causes contact with a player of the offensive team on the playing court and a foul is called, it is an unsportsmanlike foul.
 - 2 shots + the ball @ half

Unsportsmanlike Foul

- With 1:29 to play in the second quarter, the ball is out-of-bounds at the disposal of A1 for a throw-in. At this moment, B2 causes contact with A2 and a foul is called. Shall the foul be judged unsportsmanlike?
 - No
